

Need Help?

In Alameda County, health-related services are provided by Public Health, other county departments and outside agencies.

Alameda County Public Health does not oversee the following. Refer to suggested contacts.

- ✚ Alameda County Clinics and Hospitals (including Highland, John George Psych, Fairmont Rehab) concerns/complaints.
See Alameda Health System
- ✚ Alameda County's Health Plan
See Alameda Alliance, or call our Family Health Line: 888 604-INFO (4636)
- ✚ Community Clinics
See Alameda Health Consortium
- ✚ Homeless Shelters
See your city, or Health Care for the Homeless' seasonal list of shelters
- ✚ Housing Assistance
Call 2-1-1 or toll-free: 888-886-9660
- ✚ Housing violations
Refer to your City's Building Services (code enforcement) or Alameda County Healthy Homes
- ✚ Licensing & Certification
For individuals and facilities, most of this is done at the state level.
See California Department of Public Health
For EMTs & Paramedics certification only: Alameda County Emergency Medical Services
- ✚ Mold/mildew reporting
Public Health does not inspect for mold. For cleanup guidance refer to the California Dept. of Public Health or the Environmental Protection Agency. Also, see our Alameda County Mold Resource List
- ✚ Rats, rodents, excess garbage
Contact Vector Control, Environmental Health for a free site inspection
- ✚ Restaurant inspections, food-related health & safety issues
See Environmental Health - Food Safety Program