

PATHWAYS TO YOUR FUTURE

HIGH SCHOOL

- Final phase of secondary education.
- Grants high school diploma that represents your completion of standard education requirements for jobs and colleges.
- Requires completion by the age of 19.
- Students with an IEP can complete high school by the age of 22.

CONTINUATION SCHOOL

- Alternative high school diploma program.
- Option for students 16 -18 years of age, who have not graduated from high school, who are at risk of not graduating.
- Must spend at least 15 hours per week or three hours per day at school, taking courses required for graduation.
- Grants high school diploma that represents your completion of standard education requirements for jobs and colleges.
- Common reasons for choosing continuation education include: having a job outside of school, being behind in high school credits, family needs or other circumstances.

ADULT SCHOOL

- Standard education program for students 18 and older.
- Grants high school diploma, or general education diploma (GED).
- In addition, learn about jobs, learn to speak English, or learn how to become a U.S. citizen.

References

Ragland, Jacie. (2017, March 6). Continuation Education. <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/eo/ce/>