

Interested in Vocational Training!?

Develop and Improve Your Skills Through Vocational Training or Community College!

VOCATIONAL TRAINING, also referred to as trade school, or career school typically offer relatively short, career-focused programs that prepare students for the workforce. It is an option for students not interested in attending a four-year university. Vocational schools focus on programs in careers that can be completed in two years or less. The following list are some programs offered at vocational schools:

- Welding
- Cosmetology
- Plumbing
- Carpentry
- Radiology
- Electricians
- Floral design
- Medical assistant
- Dentist assistant
- Nursing assistant
- Computer Specialist
- Culinary Arts
- Paramedic – EMT
- Photography
- Mechanic
- Digital Graphic Design
- Engineering
- Cytotechnologist

A high school diploma is required for vocational training . At some high schools, vocational training is offered to aspiring juniors and seniors pursuing vocational education. Vocational school credits don't typically transfer to academic undergraduate programs (e.g., 2 or 4-year degree).

* Cost of Full-Time Tuition: Tuition can range greatly in price depending on what the subject matter is, how long the program is and if you are buying your own materials.

 Offered by Community Colleges

PAYING FOR VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

FAFSA: Determine your eligibility for Federal grants and loans to help pay for college.

*Some schools may require its completion

Scholarships: Money awarded to a student to help them complete their goals. Sign up online at <http://www.fastweb.com/> to be matched with scholarships.

- Scholarships can be offered by any institution, including your school of choice.

READY TO APPLY?

Visit <https://www.accreditedschoolsonline.org/vocational-trade-school/california/> and complete application by your school's due date.