Alameda County Public Health Department (ACPHD) & Emergency Medical Services Agency invite you to join us to discuss Alameda County Ebola Preparedness.

Many questions, inquiries, and issues about Ebola preparedness & response have been coming to public health and EMS including notification, roles and authority of public health, health care providers and others, appropriate infection control and environmental cleaning practices both in health care settings and the community, laboratory testing and shipping, and waste management.

We would like to provide an opportunity to discuss, point to reliable and useful resources, and answer questions.

- Brief Agenda & Goals:
 - Brief Situation Update
 - ACPHD & EMS Ebola preparedness activities
 - ACPHD role and authority for a suspected Ebola patient
 - *Question & Answers from facilities and organizations

- Alameda County participants will include:
 - Dr. Muntu Davis, Health Officer & Director
 - Dr. Erica Pan, Deputy Health Officer and Director of Communicable Disease Control & Prevention,
 - Dr. Sandra Huang, Communicable Disease Controller
 - Elizabeth Rowan, Acute Communicable Disease Nurse Manager
 - Dr. Karl Sporer, EMS Medical Director
 - Dr. Mark Pandori, Public Health Lab Director

There will be a separate call at noon for county and city elected officials and agencies, including key emergency management agencies in Alameda County and cities.
